NERVES IN WARTIME.
Optimum the Finest Tonic.

Lecturing before the Sociological Society yesterday on the effect of war on the nerves, Dr. Murray Leslie said there was a good deal in the German method of trying to destroy the moral of their enemies and preserving that of their own people.

soldiers suffering from battle shock were young men of 21 and 22, which suggested that it was not advisable to send our men too young.

From a medical point of view it was quite right not to publish details of Zeppelin raids.

We had had an uncomfortable feeling that we had not been properly organised, and once we felt that "the machine had begun to move," as Mr. Lloyd George expressed it, it would stay any nervous panic that might exist.

The lectures pointed out the remarkable fact that insanity had decreased since the war began. The reason no doubt was that people had had so much to think about that they had forgotten their own worries.

Optimism was of the greatest value. The exploit of the dashing young airmen would do an immense amount of good. It would spread the feeling generally that an Empire which could produce such deeds could never be defeated. So, also, they had thoroughly enjoyed the optimism of Mr. Churchill. Whether his prophecy regarding the Dardanelles came true or not, it had lifted the whole country for the time being into a better atmosphere. We ought to be optimistic, but optimistic with knowledge, not with ignorance.

Each individual, said Dr. Leslie, should do everything possible to preserve his own health, because on good health depended the nation's mental well-being.

BURNING BULLETS.

Latest Device of Frightfulness.

Dum-dum and explosive bullets are alike outside in the latest device of frightfulness attributed to our enemies on the Continent. Bullet bullets containing sulphur, which burns during flight, and till it enters the flesh are mentioned.

Following is an extract from the report, published to-day, of "Eye-Witness" present with British Headquarters.

Apropos of the incident, already reported, which occurred on May 10, of the death of two British soldiers lying between the lines having been set alight by rifle fire—according to an unconfirmed report the Germans near Sonder are now using incendiary rifle ammunition.

"The bullets are said to be filled with sulphur, which ignites on discharge and continues to burn during flight, thus increasing the severity of any wound caused."

Mr. William Bush of Camberley, who has served in the Essex Regiment, has been for over thirty years at Sandhurst Military College, has five sons, one brother, four brothers-in-law, and twelve nephews on active service. One other son died after being invalided home from the Navy, and another has been invalided from the Royal Marines.

A Natural Remedy

Time was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and exorcism and magic were invoked to cast it out.

Science has taught us wisdom. The evil spirits exist still. We call them "Disease Germs," and they also must be cast out. Once lodged in the stomach or intestines, fever with its hallucinations, or biliousness with its aches and pains, is the result.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT

is the approved remedy for driving out disease germs. Its action is quick and thorough. It clears the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to new life, stimulates the mucous membrane to a healthy action, and cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive tract.

It may be safely taken at any time by young or old.

It is very effective in the early stage of Diarrhoea by removing the irritating cause.

Be prepared for emergencies by always keeping a bottle in the house.

ALL SUMMONSES DISMISSED.

Sir David Burnett, at the Mansion House on June 11, dismissed the remaining summonses taken out by the Director of Public Prosecutions against Major E. H. Richardson, of Grove-end, Harrow, Mr. John Parkinson, Island, printer, and publisher of the "Times," newspaper, and the "Times" Publishing Company (Limited), in connection with the publication in the "Times" on May 21, of a later writing to the "Times" by Major Richardson, headed "The Need of Conclusion." This letter contained the statement:

The last French reserves are out, and at the present moment young raw recruits are being called up.

At last Saturday's hearing the other summonses against the defendants in relation to the publication of the letter were dismissed, without costs, and the remaining summonses were adjourned until yesterday.

Mr. Bodkin again appeared for the Director of Public Prosecutions, Sir Charles Mathews, who was present in court, and with Mr. Guy Stephenson, C.B., Assistant Director, and besides counsel: Mr. McCordie represented Major Richardson, and Mr. Gordon Hewett, K.C., (with whom was Mr. Walter Tramonti), appeared for Mr. Bland and the "Times" Publishing Co. (Ltd.).

Mr. Bodkin said Sir David Burnett was already aware all his (Mr. Bodkin's) learned friends were also aware, that the summonses were not proposed to be proceeded with, and were, with the permission of the court, to be withdrawn. An intimation to that effect was given on Wednesday morning to the clerk of the court in order that it might be conveyed to the magistrate as soon as possible, and it was also given in the same morning to his (Mr. Bodkin's) clients.

"Summons of extinction."

Mr. McCordie, on behalf of Major Richardson, said the letter was written in a spirit of patriotic only, and he was glad Mr. Bodkin had taken the course he had done that morning.

Mr. Gordon Hewett said this was not the time or place to offer any observation upon the course which the prosecution in this matter had thought fit to pursue at the beginning, middle, or end of the case, but it seemed right to his clients that the withdrawal or disuse of these summonses should take place in the full light of the publicity of this court, instead of it was in the full light of the publicity of this court that the prosecution had taken the steps which they did, and indicated the steps which they proposed afterwards to take.

The writer then explains how the case would remember that the matter was opened as one involving three summonses, which were an alternative way of charging the same matter, and after the first summons had been dismissed it was indicated that a day was sought for the two remaining summonses notwithstanding that the two remaining summonses depended upon evidence which was considered to be absolutely identical, his clients were, in these circumstances, bound to appear there. On June 9 his clients each received a letter from the Director of Public Prosecutions in these terms:

I beg to inform you that, with the authority of the Attorney-General, it is not proposed, in view of the decision of Alderman Sir David Burnett on Saturday last in this matter, to proceed with the remaining summonses against the above-named defendants, the hearing of which was adjourned until Friday next, June 11. The decision to which reference is above made has been communicated to the clerk of the Mansion House Justice Room, with an intimation that I do not propose to attend the court on Friday next.

In reply to that letter Messrs. Seaman, Edwards, and Jones, solicitors, on behalf of the "Times" Publishing Company and Mr. Bland, wrote a letter on June 10 in the following terms:

We are in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, and note that you do not propose to proceed with the summonses, the hearing of which was adjourned until Friday, the 11th inst., at 11.30. We did not expect that you would proceed with them—in fact, we were surprised that they were not at once withdrawn last Saturday after the decision of Sir David Burnett, but in view of the fact that this course was not taken, but, on the contrary, counsel for the prosecution applied for a day to be fixed for taking the remaining summonses, and in view of the publicity given to that application, we consider that the same publicity should be given to the withdrawal.

We therefore propose instructing our counsel to attend to-morrow (Friday), at 11.30, the time to which the summonses have been adjourned, and apply to the alderman for their dismissal.

course of procedure.

Mr. Gordon Hewett said in view of the course Mr. Bodkin had adopted, and the statement he (Mr. Bodkin) had made, it was unnecessary that he should apply for the summonses to be dismissed.

Mr. Bodkin said the reason why the matter was not, and could not, have been properly disposed of last Saturday was this: Mr. Gordon Hewett had the opportunity, which he was perfectly right in availing himself of, either consenting to or dissenting from the suggested course of taking all the summonses together. Thereupon an election was made, and the summonses which the Alderman dealt with finally last Saturday were heard and determined. He was appearing on the instructions of the Director of Public Prosecutions, who was himself acting under the direction of the Attorney-General, and it was not thought right by him (Mr. Bodkin) or by Mr.

My New Branches Opened.

The Royal Army Temperance Association, known for so many years to every British soldier who has served in the East, says the Statesman's correspondent of Simla, has not been idle since the effect of the war made itself felt, and its forthcoming report of the past year shows the scope of its interesting and valuable work.

Mr. Gordon Hewett: It is a little important to remember that my friend in opening the case said the transaction obtained, it was immediately communicated to all the parties and to the chief clerk of the Mansion House justice-room, so that the Alderman might be informed. That was the sole reason why the remaining summonses were mentioned to be taken that day (Friday), in order that they might be disposed of.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR FAMILY.

WHEN you fail to provide your family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Balsam, at this season of the year, you are neglecting them, as bowel complaint is sure to be prevalent, and it is too dangerous a malady to be trifled with. This is especially true if there are children in the family. A dose or two of this remedy will place the trouble within control and perhaps save a life, at least a doctor's bill. ## THE CANTON FLOODS.

LATEST DETAILS.

The Rev. W. W. Clayton, of the London Mission, Canton, also had some interesting observations to make on his arrival in the Colony from the stricken City. In his compound during the past few days no fewer than two hundred persons had taken refuge from their desolate homes. They looked in, practically impoverished, not knowing what to do or whether to go.

In San Yuan, where the mission quarters are situated, the flood began yesterday, and, hour by hour, the water gradually rose, presenting a appalling spectacle, as it was obvious the loss to property and probably to life would be very great. The most complete inundation took place on Monday when the flood increased by at least two feet. On Tuesday and Wednesday the scene throughout the city and its neighbourhood was extremely depressing, the people by then having mostly taken refuge in the roofs of their houses. The outbreak of the fire, added considerably to the general anxiety.

On Thursday morning the flood reached about four inches in the western suburbs and the situation seemed to promise speedy inundation, when, unfortunately, a heavy squall sent the flood up again. Throughout the western suburb of Canton, the great majority of the houses, said Mr. Clayton, had at least seven feet of water around them, with the result that among other pleasant consequences, there had been since Sunday absolutely no food at all, the river beds all being flooded out. There was nothing for the people to drink except rain water, which naturally soon became seriously contaminated. Houses were tumbling down in various parts and robbers soon put in an appearance and were able in many cases to prosecute their nefarious calling without much trouble themselves, the efforts of those in authority being directed in coping with even more disorderly elements of the population. Occasional gun or revolver shots pointed to more serious operations that robbing.

The missionaries and others connected with the relief movement did their best to help the unfortunate bodies did all they could to assist the unfortunate people in their distress and, as in the case of Mr. Clayton's house, many of their compatriots and, later, as the flood gradually receded, their own homes were practically invaded by large numbers of the Chinese, who squatted about cooking the little food they were fortunate enough to have with them. Needless to say the presence of such motley crowds was not conducive to even the modicum of comfort and decency of Europeans and, especially, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton and others, therefore, found it absolutely necessary to leave their quarters temporarily in the hands of their servants while the refugees still continued on the premises until the flood subsided.

What could be obtained was being brought round to the people in rafts but the prices were in most cases so exorbitant that they were prohibitive to most of the people. Neither could the vast majority of the people get away from the upper regions of their dwellings owing to the really prohibitive prices demanded by porters. Mr. Clayton had to pay ten dollars for the use of a boat to take himself and his wife to the steamer. The price was really very reasonable in the circumstances, as on the previous day no less than $10 were demanded for the same little aquatic trip.

The price of food gradually rose, rice being sold at only eight cents to the dollar. Of the Shamen, business was practically suspended. The British Consulate had to vacate their premises, and Mr. K. T. Lee, the Acting Consul General, was conducting business in a kind of juk-kai, while the managers of Watson & Co., and those belonging to other stores, were occasionally to be seen waist-deep in the water.

Boats and canoes, which were, of course, utilized and altogether the usual spick and span little island presented a very extraordinary appearance. On the way down the river Mr. Clayton noticed that many villages were practically submerged.

The "Fatshan," which sailed last night for Canton, took few passengers, but carried free a large quantity of rice for the relief of those unable to get supplies of food.

An officer of the "Kinchay," which arrived this morning, said the water was "holding its own," keeping at about the same level, but the fires had stopped. The general conditions were about the same, but the distress was increasing all the while.

It is impossible to give any estimate of the loss of life. Houses are collapsing all the time, while a large number have been destroyed by the fire.

DESPATCH FROM GENERAL SIR IAN HAMILTON.

WHAT GERMANY FAILED TO RECKON UPON.

RETRENCHMENT IN THE PUBLIC SERVICES.

THE DARDANELLES OPERATIONS.

REPORT FROM GENERAL HAMILTON.

LONDON, July 15, 10.30 p.m.
General Sir Ian Hamilton reports that at daybreak on July 12 the British right, with a French corps, made an attack resulting, after heavy confused fighting all day, in the capture of two strongly-fortified lines of a depth of from two to four hundred yards. The British lost on the same day also took two lines and advanced 400 yards by night. Counter-attacks were repulsed but the British right pressed too far and the Turks re-captured one section by a bold attack. This was retaken by the British Naval Division. Meanwhile the French had pushed to the mouth of the Korevadore River. All counter-attacks were easily repulsed, and the whole of the original objective was attained, except one small point, 422 prisoners were taken.

WHAT GERMANY DID NOT RECKON UPON.

LONDON, July 15, 11.10 p.m.
The statement of the German bankers to the Kaiser that the prolongation of the war would bankrupt Germany has been suppressed in official German organs, but is published in the leading German newspapers.

A leading international banker who was interviewed in New York said that Germany had entirely failed to take reckoning of the complete interruption of her overseas commerce.

ANOTHER BIG VOTE OF CREDIT TO BE ASKED FOR.

LONDON, July 15.
It is understood that the Government will ask for a vote of credit of £250,000,000 next week.

RETRENCHMENT IN THE PUBLIC SERVICES.

LONDON, July 15.
Mr. Asquith announces that a committee, presided over by Mr. Lloyd George, is in course of formation to consider retrenchment in the public services.

FRENCH MAKE FURTHER PROGRESS IN ARGONNE.

LONDON, July 15, 4 p.m.
A telegram from Paris states that the night was disturbed to the north of Arras, where the French carried a line of German trenches.

A communiqué adds: "We have made further progress in Argonne, where the Germans, in a series of counter-attacks, only succeeded in regaining a small footing."

BRITAIN'S NEW ARMY IN FRANCE.

CREATES A FAVOURABLE IMPRESSION.

LONDON, July 15.
Reuter's correspondent at the British Headquarters in France says that the arrival of the new formations has been kept a great secret. There had been rumours of the arrival of certain Divisions, but no one was aware of their actual presence until they chance to sit on the road or to meet them in the trenches. The sturdiness and discipline of the men favourably impressed the veterans, who had been most keenly interested in the formation and training of the new army. The newcomers were placed in the trenches for short spells, at first in sections and gradually in whole battalions. They stood their baptism of fire according to expectation, while one unit which was exposed to a heavy fire showed splendid courage and tenacity. The gunners highly approve of the new armistice batteries, and the moral effect of the new Divisions is undoubtedly great, inspiring the trenchmen with confidence and proving that the country is fully supporting the firing line.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENTS.

LONDON, July 15, 2.40 a.m.
The evening Paris communiqué states that the enemy in Belgium bombarded Furnes and East Dunkirk. The Germans in north Arms twice vainly attempted to leave their trenches near Souchez. The canonade in the whole of this sector was continuous, the cathedral quarter of Arms particularly suffering. Three civilians were killed.

We attacked in Argonne, guinea-fowling in the German trenches in West Argonne forest. The enemy's guinea in Argonne yesterday did not exceed 300 metres in depth.

A squadron of twenty aeroplanes bombed an enemy military railway junction between Douai and Lille, and a gun on an aeroplane accompanying the squadron bombarded a stationary train.

A GERMAN COMMUNIQUE.

LONDON, July 15.
A German communiqué claims that the Crown Prince's attack in Argonne resulted in the capture of two positions with 3,000 Frenchmen and several guns.

ON THE EASTERN FRONT.

GERMANS MAKING "A BIG MOVE."

LONDON, July 15.
That the Germans are making a big move in the region north of Warsaw appears from a Petrograd communiqué which states that the enemy, on the 12th inst., assumed the offensive on the Narew front and captured our trenches on the right bank of the Pissa on the 13th on a front of two versts, but they were dislodged by a counter-attack.

Great enemy forces are advancing between the rivers Opatz and Lydynia where the Russians, in a declining battle, retired on Tuesday night to second line positions.

The Russians, in the fighting south of Lublin on the 4th and 11th instant took 22,701 prisoners.

Fighting is also proceeding in the direction of Holland.

AMERICA'S ENORMOUS TRADE IN WAR MATERIAL.

Austria Presents A Note To America.

LONDON, July 15.
Reuter's correspondent at Amsterdam states that Austria, on June 29th, presented the American Ambassador with a Note which declares that the enormous trade in war material from the United States to Great Britain and the Allies is not consonant with the definitions of neutrality, and the American Government should undoubtedly entirely prohibit it. The Note also suggests that America should advise Austria's enemies that their supply of foodstuffs and raw materials would be interrupted if legitimate trade in these articles to neutrals is not released.

GERMANY'S "MUNICH BEER" AMMUNITION.

LONDON, July 15.
Reuter is informed that Rumania continues to successfully and energetically prevent arms from Germany and Austria reaching Turkey. Besides stopping double partitioned wagons, officials lately confiscated what was labelled "Munich beer." The Germans specially telegraphed to various stations to place ice-blocks on the trucks to keep the beer in good condition, but the curious officials discovered that the barrels contained ammunition. An examination of large cement blocks disclosed the fact that they were hollow and filled with shell cases.

TERRITORIALS' ALLOWANCES.

LONDON, July 15.
In the House of Commons, Mr. Chamberlain, replying to Mr. Ernest Jardine, said that the additional allowances were not applicable to the Territorials in Basra and the Persian Gulf, who were on active service conditions.

SCOTTISH LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

EDINBURGH, JUNE 10.

MR. CHURCHILL IN EDINBURGH.
The address which Mr. Churchill delivered to his constituents in Dundee attracted extraordinary attention from the circumstances under which it was made, but those who expected any sensational revelations had to confess disappointment. It was, as your cables have already informed you, a strongly patriotic deliverance, in which nothing was said to what had led him to lay down his position of First Lord of the Admiralty and take up the almost nominal post (in ordinary times) of Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. All the same, the speech was perhaps the most important he has ever made in Dundee. The Unionists united with the Liberals to make the gathering a representative one. A rousing reception was given to Captain E. E. Rose, 4th Black Watch, one of the prospective Unionist candidates for the City, who was wounded early last month in Flanders, and appeared on the platform in khaki, which his left arm in a

GLENDE ENGINEERS' AND MUNITIONS.
Great indignation was roused in Glasgow by the action of Mr. W. Brodie, of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers. He took the extraordinary step of visiting the Glasgow University Union and making an attempt to get the undergraduates to refrain from offering themselves as munition-workers until the Society which he represents gave their sanction. In most quarters of the Clyde, the loyal workers are indignant that Mr. Brodie should make it appear that the whole of the members of the Society were in agreement with his statements. According to Mr. Brodie, the principle of the engineers being employed on work for which other men have to serve a five years' apprenticeship while skilled workers in other trades were idle. Those "handy men, clerks and others, he said, were actually displacing engineers at a loss of 20 per cent. The students were intensely tickled by Mr. Brodie's promise that a request to be allowed to work upon munitions would receive "sympathetic consideration."

SCOTCH HIGHLANDERS.
The Highlands of Scotland possess mountain fastnesses, the only mountain batteries in Great Britain, which are recruited in Argyll, Bute, and Ross, and detachments of them are at present taking part in the operations at the Dardanelles. Two of their guns were the first artillery to land; their mobility has made them very useful; and they report that they have had "a hot time." One gunner writes, that the country "we are fighting in is like Scotland, only there is no broom or whin, but another kind of bush as prickly as the latter."

WAN NOSEWOO.
Major Robert Rankine, 14th Australian Infantry, (Victoria), who has had the Distinguished Service Order conferred upon him, is a son of the late Mr. W. Rankine, J.P., Falkirk. About two years ago he left for Australia, where he has been connected with the military forces for some time.

PRIVATE ROBERT BROOK, 1/5th Royal Scots (Queen's Edinburgh), awarded the D.C.M. (the son of the Rev. C. R. Bruce, minister of Bothwell Park, U.P. Church, Bothwell, before joining the ranks he was in the employment of J. Hill

SOUTH WALES MINERS.

STILL UNABLE TO AGREE.

LONDON, July 15.
The meeting of the South Wales Miners' Executive lasted all yesterday at Cardiff. The meeting was unable to agree on an order for resumption of work in accordance with the Federation of Great Britain's appeal. Some members reported that sections of the men were most bitterly determined not to resume.

Eventually it was resolved to ask Mr. Bunciman (Secretary for the Board of Trade) to resume negotiations at the point where they were broken off. Mr. Bunciman has agreed to do so.

The dispute does not affect, at any rate for the present, the Navy's coal, of which there are ample stocks.

The Bill to be introduced in the Commons provides that the price of coal at the pit-mouth shall not exceed last year's price by more than 4s. Drastic penalties are imposed for the contravention of the Bill, which does not apply to coal for export.

THE FRENCH NATIONAL FETE.

LONDON, July 15.
The French National Fete Day was celebrated in London. Everyone was wearing the tricolour badge, and the Marseillaise was sung at the same moment as it was sung in the trenches from the sea to the Vosges, as the remains of Rouget de Lisle (author of the "Marseillaise") were conveyed with great pomp to the vault of the Hotel des Invalides.

SIR EDWARD GREY.

LONDON, July 15.
Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who has been somewhat indisposed of late, attended a meeting of the Cabinet.

IMPERIAL DEVELOPMENT.

LONDON, July 15.
The attendance of Sir R. L. Borden, the Canadian Premier, at a British Cabinet meeting is welcomed as being a significant landmark in Imperial development. It is the first occasion on which the Premier of a Dominion has participated in an ordinary Cabinet meeting.

HARRY THAW.

LONDON, July 15.
A New York message says that after a nine years' fight for liberty Harry Thaw has secured a verdict of sanity from a jury in the New York State Supreme Court.

OBITUARY.

LONDON, July 15.
The death is announced of Major-General Sir Thomas Denney.

A mob of villagers from Nansham Courtney, Oxfordshire, alleging that there was a naturalized German chauffeur in the employment of Mr. Lewis Harcourt, sank one of his motor-launches.

CALICURA CURES CORNS.

Corns are one of the most distressing of the minor ailments.

The pain they produce in walking is often agonising. Don't pare them. Don't try to dig them out. Chiropody is best left to the Chiropodist!

Besides there is not the least necessity. Callicura is a sure and certain cure. The Corn comes out of its own accord after a few applications.

N. Y. K. DEVELOPMENT.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha have just inaugurated a new cargo service via the Panama canal route direct from Yokohama to New York. Six new boats of the "T" class, of 13,000 tons capacity, are being put on a monthly service and in the near future will be augmented by six more new vessels, when probably calls will be made at intermediate Atlantic ports. The development for about half a dozen passengers in the first class.

Rumours have been current for some time that the Company intended opening up a new service via Panama to U.S. Atlantic ports. The development in this direction promises to be considerable.
